3	(4) That involuntary unemployment and its resulting burden of
4	indigency falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker
5	and ultimately upon the state in the form of public assistance and
6	unemployment compensation.
7	(5) That security against unemployment and the resulting spread
8	of indigency and economic stagnation in the areas affected can
9	best be provided by:
10	(A) the promotion, attraction, stimulation, rehabilitation, and
11	revitalization of industrial development projects, rural

25	or artistic opportunities) for people of all ages through new,
26	expanded, or revitalized educational facility projects or through

29	and expanded industrial development projects, rural development
30	projects, mining operations, and agricultural operations that
31	involve the processing of agricultural products.
32	(7) That there is a need to stimulate a larger flow of private

34	insurance companies, other financial institutions, and individuals
35	into such industrial development projects, rural development
36	projects, mining operations, international exports, and agricultural

40	for creation or expansion of industrial development projects, rural
41	development projects, mining operations, international exports,

12	(D) the abatement, reduction, or prevention of pollution;
13	(E) the provision of safe drinking water;
14	(F) the provision of storm water management;
15	(G) the removal or treatment of any substances in materials
16	being processed that otherwise would cause pollution when
17	used; or
18	(F) (H) increased options for and availability of child care;
19	will improve the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the 20	people of the state and constitutes a public purpose for which the
21	authority shall exist and operate.
22	(10) That the issuance of bonds of the authority to create a
23	funding source for the making of guaranteed participating loans
24	will promote and encourage an expanding international exports
25	market and international exports sales and will promote the
26	general welfare of all of the people of Indiana by assisting Indiana
27	businesses through stimulation of the expansion of international

34	opportunities by the promotion and development of industrial
